

Nobody said that coming into the world would be easy. No beginning is a piece of cake in these uphill times at the literary and worldwide scenario. The world is actually a stage at the mercy of literature. Each minute is a symbol of what moves us. Life is, inevitably, “a prize not awarded”.

From the commotion and the invisible, from the not awarded prizes, is born “Colectivo Mononcle”.
A youth association with no profit -but cultural- motive in mind. As well as with pretensions of instigating the youth creation in all aspects, especially in the literary one.
